IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO.2103 OF 2005

Parshuram Kashinath Chavan .. Petitioner

Vs.

Deputy Inspector General of Police, Pune Divn. Pune and Ors. .. Respondents

Mr. Vinod Shah for Petitioner.
Mr. D.R. More, APP for State.

CORAM: S.S. PARKAR & ANOOP V. MOHTA,JJ.

Date : August 31, 2005.

P.C.:

1. Heard. This petition is filed for extension of furlough leave granted to the prisoner.

2. Initially furlough was granted on 2/8/2005 for a period of two weeks. It was extended for two weeks and expired on 30/8/2005. The petitioner had applied for further extension on 22/8/2005 for raising money for by-pass heart surgery of his mother. It is stated that he is the only male member of the family who can arrange for the money. The tentative date for operation is 20/9/2005.

3. After considering the aforesaid facts, we are of the view that a week's extension can be granted to the prisoner to enable him to arrange the funds and surrender to the Jail Authorities. He may again apply for parole at the time of by-pass surgery when the date of the operation is fixed, which application, when made, may be considered sympathetically by the Authority.

4. In the result, we extend the furlough leave granted to the petitioner by further one week. For the purpose of attending the by-pass operation of his mother, the petitioner may apply to the Authority for parole or any other permission that can be granted under the law, which application, when made, can be considered sympathetically by the Authority.

5. With the aforesaid directions, this petition stands disposed off.
